

Priority D:

Pursue health equity through research

CIHR will address inequitable health outcomes and access to health care in Canada.

CIHR will identify and address the social, cultural, environmental, structural, and biological determinants of health.

CIHR will implement a framework for action on global health research to accelerate health equity for all.

